Rocky Mountain Regional Meeting 2017
October 25-28 • Loveland, CO

Dear Potential Exhibitor or Sponsor,

The Colorado Section of the American Chemical Society is pleased to host the Rocky Mountain Regional Meeting 2017. The theme for this year's meeting is Energy in the Rockies. Major topics for the meeting will include Energy Production, Chemical Education, and the Chemistry of Fermented Products. Also, additional sessions for all other chemistry disciplines are planned. Prominent plenary speakers from in and around the Rocky Mountain region will be in attendance as well as scientists from academia, government, and industry. The program will include interesting and timely research accounts and updates from research scientists representing all the major fields of chemical science.

We would like to invite you to exhibit in our show. The meeting is expected to attract 500 attendees from academia, government, and industry. Spaces and rates are listed on the attached contract form. In the spirit of participation and economic growth, we are holding exhibitor rates to $650.00 per space for commercial vendors (includes two registrations to the meeting) and $350.00 for not-for-profit and academic institutions (includes one registration to the meeting). RMRM2017 is a great venue for vendors to meet with existing customers as well as make new customers.

If you are interested in being a sponsor, a variety of sponsorships are available to exhibitors for maximum exposure during the event. Please see the attached form for details.

This cutting edge scientific program will be held just north of Denver in beautiful Loveland, Colorado. Loveland is easily accessible from Interstate 25 and is an easy one hour trip from Denver International Airport.
